A RADICAL CURE.

Pfeil, the German explorer of Africa, makes, in talking about German colonization of the dark continent, this suggestive remark: "Even our worst Socialists in the German colonies soon become strong conservatives." In other words, when a German Socialist sees before him the chance of independent and successful ownership of land, the opportunity to turn his energy and enterprise into gold for his own use, he ceases to become an active Socialist. He may continue to be a Socialist in theory, as so many foreign-born Americans are. But practically he is a conservative. The active, rabid Socialist in America is always your disappointed, soured man—a man who, through business incapacity, immorality, laziness or other cause, has fallen behind in the race and hopes to regain what he has lost not by making extra exertions himself, but by inducing others to cease their exertions. Arouse healthy ambition in a Socialist in America or Africa and he is no longer dangerous.—Report.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

—Red Bluff has voted $25,000 to build a schoolhouse.
—Professor Melville, the balloon man, was sunstruck at Colusa Monday.
—Senator Dolph thinks forts should be built on Puget Sound and armed with heavy guns.
—An electric railway is to be built around Elsinore Lake, at Elsinore, Los Angeles County.
—Jack Richardson killed an aged and peaceable miner at Pike City Saturday after jumping his claim.
—H. T. Roberts, while out hunting in Napa county, Saturday, was accidentally shot and killed by his companion, Charles Davis.
—Mrs. Emma Reglie committed suicide at Truckee, it is stated, because of a sensational newspaper report of threatened disclosures of family affairs.
—Circuit Judge Deady at Portland, Or., decides that passes must not be given to the family of a railroad employee, and sustains the long-and-short haul clause.
—A strike in the Sutter Cannery at Marysville Saturday was devoid of beneficial results to the strikers, and the ten boys and girls who took part in it were refused employment and others substituted.

Terre Haute's Madstone.

Terre Haute's madstone, with its eighty years' record of hundreds of applications, has twice more been used within the past week. James Walker, of Irving's station, on the Indianapolis and St. Louis, in Illinois, brought his little girl here. She had been bitten by a dog that showed every symptom of being rabid. The stone would not adhere, and as its record shows that no death ever resulted when the stone failed to adhere, the father went away satisfied.
A few days ago Miss Hoover, of Newman, Ill., was brought here terribly lacerated by the bites of a dog that had died of rabies, and had bitten other dogs that also died, as supposed, from the same disease. The stone immediately adhered to one of the wounds, and could not be removed for fourteen hours, when it dropped off. During that time the stone became of a dark color. It was cleansed in sweet milk and again applied, adhering to the flesh for ten hours, after which it failed to adhere on several applications. Miss Hoover returned to her home, and word is received that she is steadily improving.

—The meeting of the Union and Confederate veterans on the field of Gettysburg seems to have lost nothing by the battleflag incident. The survivors of Pickett's desperate charge and the men against whose front of fire Pickett's gallant division dashed itself to death, marched arm in arm over the scene of the conflict. The old soldiers can be magnanimous when they are allowed to be so spontaneously. The magnanimity they object to is that which is forced upon them by unsympathetic civilians, or demanded by unreconciled enemies.

AN OPEN LETTER.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., June 3, 1887.
Dr. Prentice, 626 Sutter street, San Francisco—My dear Doctor: Please allow me to congratulate you (as well as myself) on the success of your treatment in my case. As I told you when we first met, two months ago, I had suffered untold agony for 21 years with the piles, often being unable to perform any manual labor for weeks at a time, being compelled to resort to morphine to deaden the pain. Life seemed a burden and hardly worth living, the constant pain and irritation driving me nearly crazy, after trying many remedies without any permanent relief. I happened to see one of your advertisements and concluded to try once more, and thank the good Lord and Dr. Prentice, I am now a well man and again life seems worth living. I should be glad if some of my suffering friends of Norwalk, Florida, and Scotchman Maine, could be treated by you. Yours with gratitude, ROBERT WILLIAMS.
P. S.—At present I can be found at Spaulding's Saw Works, 17 and 19 Fremont street, San Francisco
